STEVE FORD ANSWERS QUESTIONS—Steve Ford, son of President and Mrs. Gerald Ford, gave a brief talk and then opened the floor to questions when he brought his campaign to re-elect his father to Hamlin Tuesday. Young Ford made three appearances in Hamlin, at the high school for an assembly, at a reception held at the First Baptist Church fellowship hall, and at the noon luncheon of the Lions Club. And What Have You

Sometime within the next few weeks most of you living in Hamlin will be called upon to give to the United Way Campaign. It is our hope that you will be as generous this year as you were last year.

Most of us have wished for a one-drive campaign like this for years but it will only work if we give like we would for several drives. It worked last year because each of you were generous and it will take this same generosity again this year.

A great many people were aided last year through the various agencies supported by the United Way. A large per cent of the nearly $14,000 raised last year went to support the activities of our youth but at the same time it also supported the fight against some of our major diseases.

—Through the Salvation Army your money helped a great many local people in their time of trouble as well as sending some local boys to summer camp.

—Along with supporting the total Boy Scouting movement, your monies helped purchase equipment for the local troop and helped send 17 boys to scout camp and two to the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

—Through the Hamlin Day Care Center your money helped care for about 200 children during the past year whose mothers were working.

—Your support also helped the Girl Scout movement with equipment and supplies and helped support the annual summer camp.

—Through your support a great many local youngsters were awarded prize money during the annual Hamlin Livestock Show.

—About 138 boys and girls took part in the annual Summer Recreation Program suported by United Way.

—Your support of the United Way Campaign helped provide equipment and facilities for 12 Little League boys and girls teams and three Pony League teams.

—You helped support the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, birth defects and heart research, cancer research and the Cystic Fibrosis campaign.

Most of these activities and services you have always supported in the past but you have had to support them one at a time and most of you have had to work in one drive right after another.

Pipers to Host Knox City Here Friday

The Pipers will be seeking their second District 7-A victory here Friday night when they host the Knox City Greyhounds. Both teams won their opening conference game last week and both have 3-1 season records.

While the Pipers were having to struggle to win in the last quarter against a strong Munday club, 12-0, the Greyhounds were edging out Aspermont, 14-9. The two teams have not played a common opponent this season with Knox City holding wins over Rule 7-6; Archer City, 12-0; and Aspermont, 14-9. Their only loss was to the highly ranked Class B team, Rochester, 27-0.

After one district game, Hamlin, Haskell, Crowell and Knox City are all undefeated in league action. Haskell won over Paducah, 35-21; Crowell over Rotan, 40-6; Knox City over Aspermont, 14-9; and Hamlin over Munday, 12-0.

In District 7-A action this week, while Hamlin is hosting Knox City, Crowell will be hosting Munday, Aspermont traveling to Paducah and Haskell going to Rotan.

The Greyhounds will be operating out of the Houston Veer with David Anderson (155) at quarterback. In the backfield with him will be Jimmy Rushing (160) and Tommy Mangis (165) at the runningback positions and Billy Reynolds (135) at flanker.

Anderson is a good passer and has three good receivers in Reynolds, Jim Whitten (180) and Mark Clonts (160). All three receivers have good speed and can catch the ball.

All three backs, including the quarterback, are good runners and have average or better speed.

The offensive line for the Greyhounds will be Jerry McCown (150) at center, Troy Lewis (160) and Brett Boone (150) at the guard positions, and Craig Brothers (170) and Jodie McGaughey (210) at the tackle positions.

On defense, the Greyhounds run a split six with their front four averaging 208 pounds. The defensive ends will be Whitten (180) and Doug Ray (165) and the defensive tackles will be McGaughey (210) and Jimmy Albus (275). The linebackers will be Mangis (165) and Boone (150) and the corners will be Rushing (160) and Max Rocha (145) The halfbacks will be Reynolds (135) and Mike Howell (140) and the safety will be Anderson (155).

Steve Ford Liked Home-Style Cooking Here

One interesting sidelight to Steve Ford's visit is the fact that Mrs. Garnet Waggoner, who cooks the noon luncheon for the Lions Club, did not know until 6 p.m. Monday that her usual attendance would be increased to more than 50 including Ford's party and special guests. And, she had already bought groceries.

Ford commented in closing his remarks to the Lions Club that the meal was the best that he and his party had had in some time. He said the meals had been largely hot dogs and barbecue. Mrs. Waggoner, who prepares home style meals for the the Lions and Rotary Clubs, served meat loaf and ham with a variety of vegetables, salads, hot bread, and dessert.

McCaulley Homecoming Set Saturday

Registration and visiting at McCaulley Homecoming will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday in the high school gymnasium. Open House of the remodeled school plant is scheduled.

The McCaulley cheerleaders are also sponsoring a junk sale and many items will be for sale, including old school desks.

The business meeting will be held at 4 p.m.

The evening meal will be served in the gym from 5:30 to 7 p.m. by the Junior and Senior Classes.

In the football game at 7:30 p.m., McCaulley will be meeting Trent.

Steve Ford Campaigns For Dad Here Tuesday

"The boy next door," Steve Ford, son of President and Mrs. Ford, brought his campaign for the re-election of his father to Hamlin Tuesday and the quiet mild-mannered young man created quite an impression.

Wearing simple western wear (he says when he puts on a suit he breaks out in a rash) the young Ford spoke to the Hamlin High School students and a number of townspeople, attended a reception at the Baptist Church fellowship hall and spoke at the noon luncheon of the Hamlin Lions Club.

If there was any one image that the 20-year-old son of the President created it had to be his love of family and their close ties. This theme ran through all three public appearances here as he told of his family's life since his father was first named Vice President and then President.

Ford was introduced at the various functions by John Watts, Hamlin Board of Community Development President, who told the high school audience that the BCD was proud to be a part of bringing a member of the presidential campaign to Hamlin in the belief that it will generate more voter interest and participation in our democratic election process.

Ford, when he is not campaigning for his father, trains horses and attends college in California. Prior to that and after graduating from high school, the young man spent two years working on ranches in Utah, Montana and Wyoming.

Saying that he was doing most of his campaigning in the West, "because these are my kind of people," Ford has traveled 3,000 miles in the past few weeks and still has another 4,000 miles to go.

Ford's trip to Hamlin came about in response to a letter of invitation by S. C. Ferguson, vice president of Farmers and Merchants National Bank and a director of both the BCD and the Hamlin Industrial Foundation.

Ferguson said that he was not thinking of politics when he wrote the letter but that he was just impressed by the young man who likes to cowboy and rodeo. "He just seemed our kind of person."

Word of Ford's possible trip to Hamlin was first mentioned in a telephone call from Washington last Monday, Sept. 27. But the trip did not begin to firm up until last Friday when it was learned that he would be here but could not stay for lunch. Then final arrangements were made Monday and his time to be spent here was stretched to include an appearance at the Lions Club luncheon.

During a question and answer period at the high school Ford touched on many of the major campaign issues including taxes, foreign aid, unemployment, welfare and agriculture, including the resignation of Secretary Earl Butz.

Paul Reynolds opened the assembly at the high school with the invocation and Cheryl Baker lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

LEAVING THE HIGH SCHOOL—Steve Ford, accompanied by Sam Ferguson, left, two aides and two secret service men, leaves the Hamlin High School on his way to a reception at the First Baptist Church fellowship hall. Ford arrived in Hamlin at 11:00 a.m. and stayed until about 1:30. (Photo by Tim Jones)

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(October 8, 1926)

On Friday afternoon at three o'clock the corner stone of the new Methodist Church of Hamlin will be laid by the Masonic Lodge of Hamlin. Mr. J. D. Dodson of Abilene, Acting Grand Master will have charge of the ceremonies. Rev. G. S. Hardy of Sweetwater, will deliver the address of the occasion.

The laying of the corner stone of this new building will be an important event in the building program of the community and the people are urged to be present and give to this important enterprise their encouragement and assistance.

Sunday afternoon about four o'clock the home of Mrs. W. R. West, located in northwest Hamlin, was completely destroyed by fire. It is believed the blaze, which originated in the bathroom and quickly spread to the other part of the house, caught from an electric wire.

The house was partially covered by insurance, but the furniture and clothing was a total loss, and there was no insurance on that, and only a few pieces of small value were saved.

The recent oil findings in the county has created much interest. and land has been leasing rapidly since the Martin well, located twelve miles west of Hamlin showed oil last Friday morning. The prices on leases are ranging from three to fifteen dollars per acre. It is reported that the Martin well at present is shut down, on account of a slight cave in, but drilling will be resumed as soon as possible.

The material for drilling another well is now being unloaded on the J. C. Culbertson farm, four miles east of Hamlin, and we understand according to contract, the drilling will begin not later than November the first.

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Through the United Way you can take care of all this during October and not worry about it again until next year.

So when you are asked to give, please be generous and if you are asked to work in the campaign please make an effort to see everyone on your list as soon as possible.

The slogan, "Thanks to You It's Working," means just what is says— the United Way Campaign will only work if you care.

Recently there was a story in the Fort Worth Star Telegram announcing a new policy in the Fort Worth school district that no food can be cooked at home, brought on school premises and given or sold to children.

Food brought for school functions must be commerically "closed" or packaged. This is because of the danger of poisoned food, or because of the danger of improperly prepared food that might be harmful to children.

The school people told the board that since they didn't know where the home made food came from or under what conditions it was prepared, they had rather ban all home made food.

Just one more good reason not to live in the big city!

Pat Willoughby, center, Lions Club president, welcomed Ford and other guests at the Lions luncheon.

POSE WITH FORD—Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ferguson pose with Steve Ford during the reception held at the First Baptist Church fellowship hall Tuesday morning. Ferguson wrote a letter about two months ago inviting the young President's son to Hamlin and was involved in making the arrangements for the visit.

VISIT WITH STEVE FORD—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cowan were among Hamlin people to visit and talk with Steve Ford during his campaign visit here Tuesday. About 150 to 200 people were on hand for the reception following his visit to the high school.

Steve Ford Visits . . Answers Questions

During the question and answer session at the high school assembly, the questions were asked by members of Mrs. L. C. Brown's senior civics class.

Steve Ford, apparently well versed on the issues of the campaign, answered each of the student's questions without the benefit of notes and with little or no hesitation.

A brief sketch of the questions and Ford's answers follow:

In answer to the question about the rumor that his father had written off the south, Ford said that his father's campaign program does not eliminate any part of the country and later on he said that every vote and every person counts the same.

Asked how he liked the Debate format, he said that it was a careful format and not a one on one situation. He said that he felt his father could do better in a one on one situation but that this type would be more hostile. He said he personally liked the format.

When asked about more aid to higher education, Ford said that this country must cut down on federal spending. He said that it took a lot of courage for his father to veto the 59 bills since he became president but that in doing it he had saved the taxpayers $10 million. "We must cut down on all federal spending, not just for education." He accused Democratic candidate Jimmy Carter of proposing to spend $100 million more. "This will come out of your pockets and mine," young Ford said.

In explaining his father's policy on exporting wheat to Russia and the embargo, Ford said that his father's five-year program with Russia was a good thing for this nation and its wheat farmers. He said that Russia had a good crop this year and did not need to buy any wheat but that because of the five-year program they were having to buy it anyway. He said that more and more markets around the world would open to our agricultural products and that we must cultivate them. He pointed out that our agricultural exports have grown from $6 billion in 1965 to $22 billion in 1975.

In commenting on the recent resignation of Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz, Ford said that his personal reaction was that the right decision was made but that he felt Butz had done a lot for agriculture in opening up a lot of world markets and freeing the farmer from strings and controls.

Ford said that he opposed legalizing marijuana but felt that sometime in the future it would be legalized. He said he felt the penalty should be lessened. He said that young kids are going to try it and he felt that they should not be ruined for life because of it.

When asked about the defense budget, he said that he felt that it had been too low and that we were not keeping up. He said that we have an obligation to other free countries and also said that Russia's defense budget was 60 or 70 percent higher than ours.

In discussing the reforms needed in the federal welfare program, Ford said that what we needed was more people working and not on welfare. He said that the Democratic controlled Congress and Carter want to create jobs with your taxes. He said his father would rather give industry a tax break that would create more long term jobs. He also said that a lot of welfare money was going to the wrong people.

When asked "What is your idea of a normal home life," Ford said that we grew up like any middle class American family and then overnight they moved into the White House. He said that he was still doing what he had planned all along to do.

On the question of foreign aid, he said that Carter wants to spend too much money on foreign aid. But at the same time he said that a certain amount of foreign aid was needed because the United States was trying to support and develop the free nations while Russia is trying to bring them under their control.

When asked why the care and survival of Israel was our responsibility, Ford said that this is a problem everyone is trying to answer. He said that this is one of the major trouble spots in the world and this nation has to be a leader in keeping peace around the world. He drew a round of applause when he said that we have to learn to live together.

On the subject of gun control, Ford said that people have tried to confuse his father's stand. He said that while a Congressman, his dad had voted for some gun control bills but not one of these called for gun registration. He said the bills his dad had supported called for stiffer penalties for gun related crimes and the elimination of the so-called Saturday Night Specials. But he said his dad believes that guns should not be registered and this is a basic right that should not be taken away.

When asked about controling taxes, Ford said that he agreed with his father that the Democrats want to run away with the taxpayers money. If you hold down federal spending you don't have to increase taxes.

In response to the Carter's proposed Sunshine Law, Ford said that his father has not gotten the credit for what he has done in the last two years. He said that you must look at the state this nation was in two years ago and that his father has brought back this nation's confidence and pride. He said that his father has an open administration. "He's Jerry Ford, that's the way he is," young Ford said.

TOP GROUND GAINER—Delbert Thompson (42) picks up some of the yardage against Munday that made him the night's leading ground gainer with 128 yards in 23 carries. Coming up to stop him for Munday is Jimmy Cooke (73). The Pipers scored twice in the final quarter to take their district opener, 12-0. (Photo by Tim Jones)

HARD MAN TO STOP—Munday's big fullback, Robert Spells (40), proved to be a hard man to stop Friday night against the Pipers. The 195-pound running back gained 114 yards in 20 carries against the Pipers.

The Hamlin Junior Varsity football team walloped Munday's J. V. 12-0 here Thursday evening.

Todd Marshall opened the scoring in the first quarter for Hamlin on a 15-yard run around right end. The extra point attempt failed. Jackie Cork closed out the scoring in the third quarter on an eight-yard ramble around left end. Again, the extra point attempt failed. Hamlin's defense did an excellent job on several goal line stands to preserve the shutout.

Neinda Philosopher Takes A Look At The Decline In Quality of Education Kids Get

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One gets on to a touchy subject this week, but he'll have to look out for himself.

Dear editor:

As I hear it, there's a lot of concern around the country over public education these days. People are pointing out that a student can finish high school and still not be able to read and write. In fact, it's gotten to where lots of times a high school diploma is about the equivalent of what a grammar school diploma used to be, and a college degree is the equivalent of what a high school diploma used to be.

To back this up, experts point out that scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test for high school seniors have worsened. As I understand it, the tests indicate among other things how much a student has learned, and for the past few years they indicate he's learning less and less.

This naturally has troubled school leaders and they've been hunting for answers. You suppose they're looking in the wrong places?

I mean, this is none of my business but since I'm not running for President and can therefore afford to put my foot in my mouth, I was just wondering: has anybody thought of giving the school faculties across the nation a Scholastic Aptitude Test? Since I've gone this far I might as well ask, has anybody thought of giving boards of trustees the test? School principals? Superintendents? University regents? State legislators? Governors? Congressmen? I don't have time to take it myself.

Even though it may be too late, I will now change the subject. I notice that the 1977 model cars are going to get more miles per gallon of gas, some even a third more than cars did three years ago.

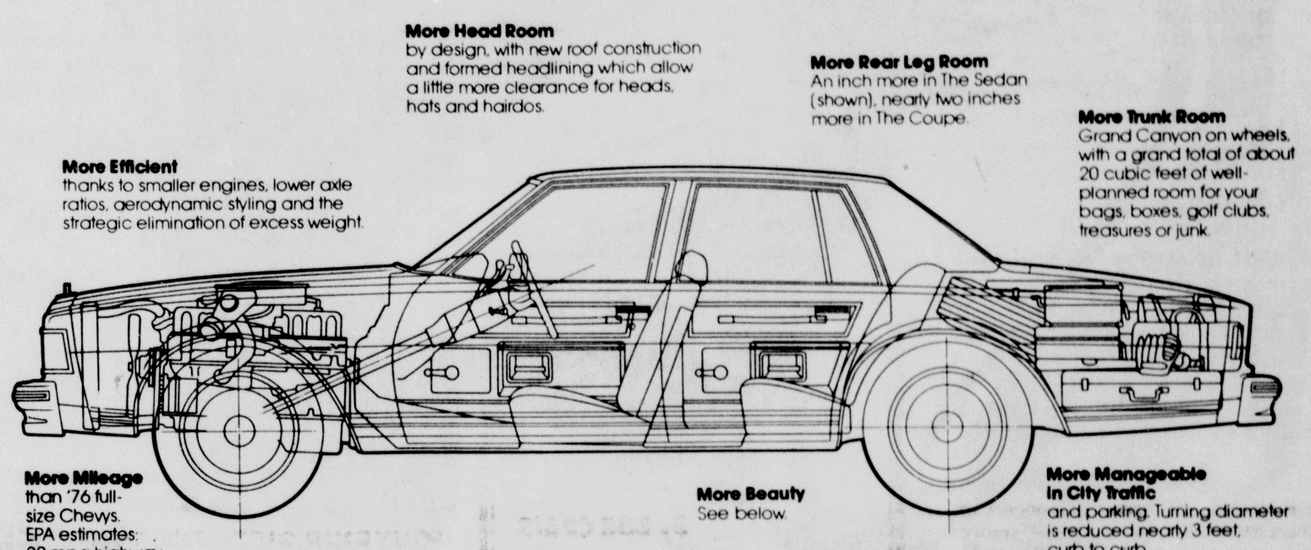

Conservationists say this can be translated into a 33 per cent saving in the nation's consumption of gasoline, but this may be a statistic with holes in it. What it may mean is that people will simply drive a third more. It's sort of like the over-weight beer drinker who was delighted when he found out about the new brands of beer containing one-third less calories than the other brands. "Here's where I can lose some weight," he said, but he didn't. What he wound up doing was drinking a third more.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

The New Chevrolet.

A whole new car, a whole new ball game.

It was clear that cars had to become more efficient. Not just small cars. All cars.

It was equally clear that plenty of people still preferred cars of size and substance, and were not about to settle for less.

So we gave them more.

More economy and common sense on the one hand, more head room and rear leg room and trunk room on the other.

All in a crisp, clean, beautiful new package we call The New Chevrolet. A whole new kind of 6-passenger car that's more manageable in size, more responsible in its use of fuel and materials, yet retains "big car" room, ride, comfort and pride.

It's more than a new car.

It's a whole new ball game.

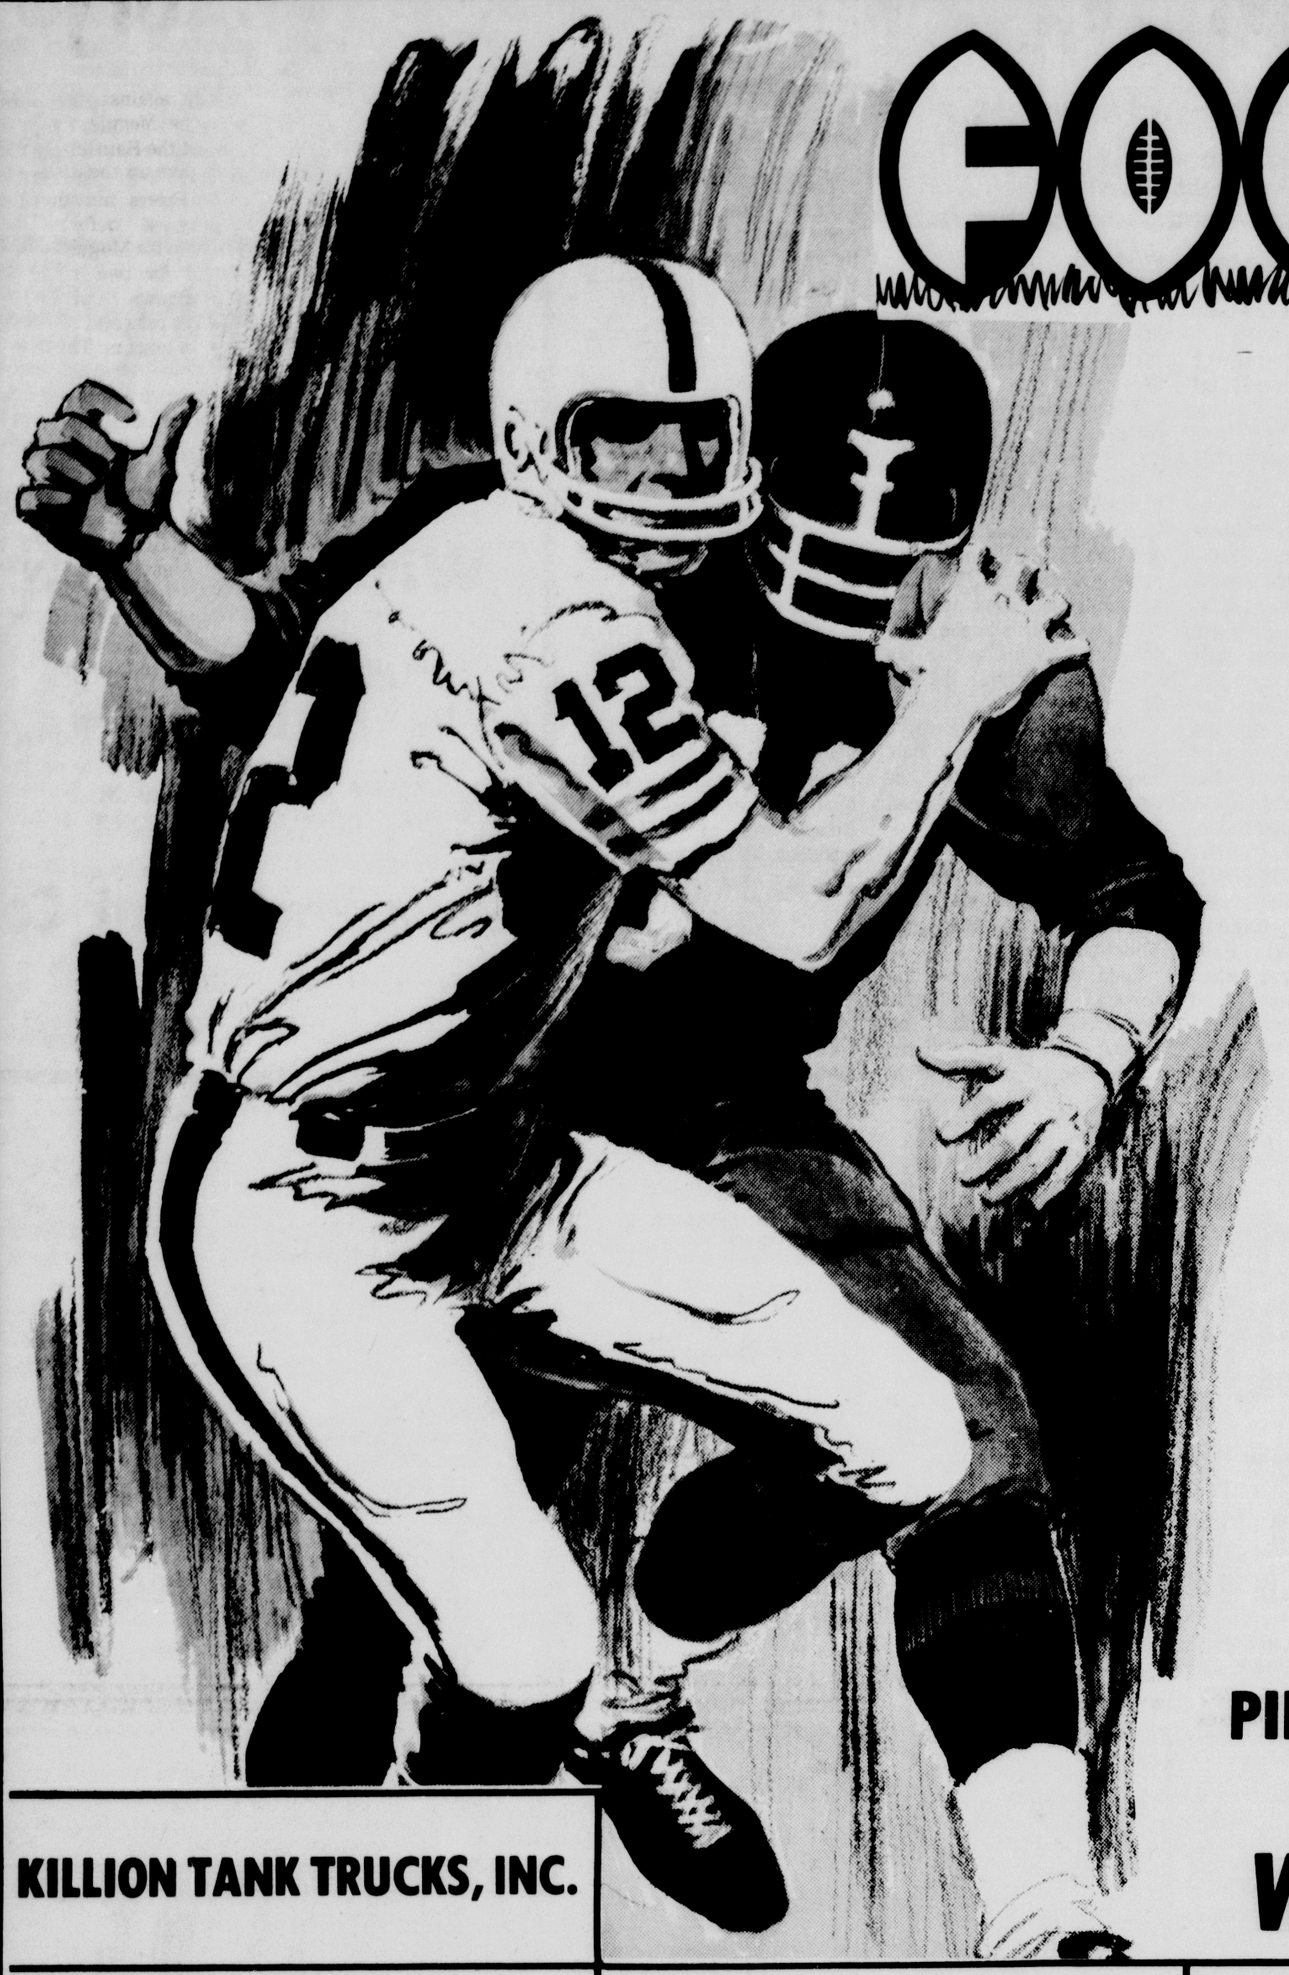

See for yourself at your Chevrolet dealer today.

Now that's more like it.

Charles Brown Comes Up With Big Plays for Piper Victory

Flanker and defensive safety Charles Brown was the key to the Piper's 12-0 victory over the Munday Moguls Friday night in the opening round of District 7-A play. Brown scored one of the two Piper touchdowns and set up the other one with a pass interception.

The two teams fought a scoreless battle until early in the fourth period when Brown took a short pass from substitute quarterback Drew Tomlinson and twisted and turned his way 20 yards to the endzone. With 1:28 left in the game, Brown picked off Munday quarterback Andy Haynie's pass at the Munday 45 and returned it 27 yards to the 18. Halfback Delbert Thompson scored on the next play to put the game away.

In the first quarter Brown picked off another Haynie pass to kill the Mogul's only scoring threat of the night.

The Pipers moved the ball inside the Munday 20 twice in the first half but could not get across the goal line on either threat. Fullback Stanley Jones attempted a 27-yard field goal late in the second period, but it was wide of the mark.

Thompson was the night's leading ground gainer with 128 yards in 23 carries for a 5.6 yard average. Robert Spells, Munday's big 195-pound fullback, carried 20 times for 114 yards for a 5.7 average. Jones carried the ball 19 times for the Pipers for 81 yards and a 4.3 average.

Munday took the opening kickoff but failed to gain a first down and punted with Hamlin taking over on their own 23. Three plays failed to gain a first and Vance Lakey punted to the Munday 46.

Taking over on their own 46, Munday picked up a first down on two five-yard runs by Spells but then had two incomplete passes and on third down Robby Thompson fumbled with Paul Reynolds recovering it for the Pipers at mid-field.

Jones ripped off 29 yards to the Munday 21 to give the Pipers their first scoring opportunity. Thompson gained seven yards but on the next play the Pipers were penalized five, back to the 19. Jones was stopped for no gain and then Reynolds was dropped for a six-yard loss to the 25. Reynold's fourth down pass into the endzone went incomplete and Munday took over at the 25.

Spells broke loose for a 40-yard gain to the Hamlin 35 on first down and then Hamlin drew another five-yard penalty to give the Moguls the ball on the Hamlin 30. Rudy Esquivel picked up 10 yards to the Hamlin 20, but then could only pick up six yards in three trips into the line. Facing fourth and four, Haynie took to the air with Brown intercepting the pass at his own five.

The Pipers moved the ball out to mid-field before Thompson fumbled with Y Rameriz recovering for the Moguls at the Hamlin 48. Munday could pick up only three yards in three tries and punted to the Hamlin 24. On third and 10, Thompson ripped off 29 yards on the draw play to the Hamlin 44.

Mack Lee carried for five, Thompson four and then Jones picked up a first down on a seven-yard carry to the Munday 40. Jones gained one, Reynolds was stopped for no gain and then Charles Brown picked up the first down on a nine-yard reverse. Jones picked up four and Thompson got another first down on a seven-yard carry to the Munday 19. Reynolds kept the ball around end for seven and then Thompson got four yards for another first down at the eight. Thompson picked up three and then Reynolds recovered his own fumble on the snap for no gain. Jones was dropped for a two-yard loss and then tried a 27-yard field goal that was wide.

Munday took over with 1:31 left in the first half and moved to their own 43 as the half ended.

Hamlin took over on their own five following the second half kickoff and moved to mid-field before punting. A 34-yard pass from Reynolds to Ronald Brown gained most of this yardage.

Munday failed to gain a first down and punted to the Hamlin 39. The Pipers picked up two first downs before being forced to punt back to the Moguls with Lakey punting 35 yards to the Munday three. Munday could not overcome a five-yard penalty and was forced to punt from its own 12 four plays later.

Taking over on their own 40, the Pipers picked up a first down at the 29 on the running of Jones and Thompson. Reynolds carried for nine and Munday was penalized for five to give the Pipers a first down at the 15. Hamlin drew a penalty that caused some confusion as the quarter ended. The signal was holding against the Pipers but when the ball was put into play the Pipers had only lost five yards with the ball on the Munday 19.

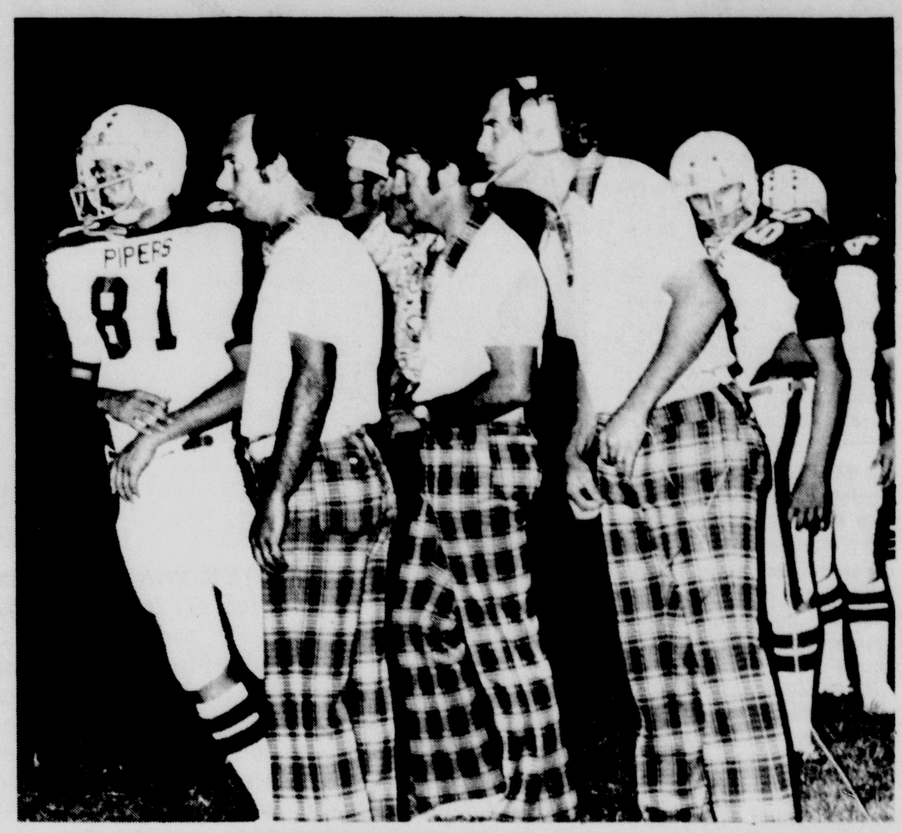

Going in for Reynolds, Tomlinson was dropped for a yard loss and then on second down fumbled the ball, picked it up and threw it to his right. Charles Brown came back for the pass, dodged several would be tacklers and made his way into the end zone with 11:42 left on the clock. Jones's kick was no good and the Pipers owned a 6-0 lead.

Taking to the air following the kickoff, Munday moved to the Hamlin 27 before fumbling with Jimmy Ledbetter recovering for the Pipers at the 27. Haynie completed two passes to Mike Urbanczyk for a total of 33 yards and Spells completed one for 25 yards. A 15-yard penalty against the Pipers gave the Moguls their first down at the Hamlin 27 before they gave up the ball.

The Pipers moved to the Munday 40 before Lakey punted to the Mogul 13. Spells carried for two yards and then Brown picked off Haynie's pass and returned it to the 18 to set up Thompson's touchdown. Hamlin tried to pass for two points but it was incomplete and the Pipers led 12-0 with 1:20 left in the contest.

Following the kickoff, Munday ran one play and then Jones intercepted the third Munday pass of the night for the Pipers. Reynolds fell on the ball twice to run off the final 41 seconds of the game.

LEANING AGAINST THE WIND?—Hamlin players and coaches on the sidelines Friday night are so intent on the action on the field that they appear to be leaning against a strong wind. Tommy Maberry (81) waits on the next play from Coach Larry Bartee. At their right is Head Coach Bill Grissom and Coach Andy Lowe. Number 55 for the Pipers is Roger Gonzalez. (Photo by Tim Jones)

INJURED ANKLE—Charles Brown (22), defensive standout for the Pipers in their 12-0 victory over the Munday Moguls Friday night, has an ice pack placed on his ankle near the end of contest. He hurt his ankle following a pass interception that led to the final Piper touchdown. He was better earlier this week but it was still not known what condition it would be in by Friday night's game with Knox City. (Photo by Tim Jones)

Homecoming Final Plans Are Firmed

Final plans for Homecoming for Hamlin High School ex-students and teachers were made Monday afternoon at a meeting of the officers.

Officers reported that response to the mailing of the newsletter had been very good. A good number of exes have mailed in their registrations.

The memorial window will include pictures of deceased ex-students and teachers. Those having pictures of deceased should take them to Mar-Jo's this week for the display and then pick them up there on Monday after Homecoming.

The Homecoming schedule for Friday, Oct. 15, includes a chili supper before the football game Oct. 15 and an aftergame coffee. Saturday, Oct. 16, will be a morning parade, a noon barbecue and an afternoon business session.

Field Meeting Set Tuesday

A field meeting to observe cotton variety test plots will be held on the Mac Reid farm Tuesday, Oct. 12, starting at 9:30 a.m., states Kirby Clayton, county extension agent.

The test plot has 11 different varieties side by side in the plot. Dr. Dale Lovelace with the Texas Extension Service will be on hand to discuss the variety plots.

The Mac Reid farm is located 2 miles Southwest of Hamlin on the McCaulley paved road.

Donations to the Piper Park Fund may be made to Joe Ford at Farmers and Merchants National Bank.

ON ELECTRIC COOKING

★ For best results, use flat bottom utensils with tight fitting covers. Utensils of medium or heavy weight aluminum conduct heat faster, transfer heat evenly and respond quickly to temperature changes.

★ Match the utensil to the size of the unit. Use 8 inch units for large utensils. Use 6 inch units for small to average sized pans.

★ Use high setting for a quick start for any surface cooking, or to boil water quickly. When cooking temperature is reached, switch to a lower setting.

★ Do not pre-heat the oven for roasting or broiling, but do pre-heat the oven to the temperature given in the recipe for baking.

EAGLE EYE NEWS

Compiled by the Journalism Class of McCaulley High School
Geneva Carter, sponsor

McCaulley Jr. High took on the Trent Gorillas last Thursday night at Trent. The Eagles really tried hard but lost 8-0. It was their first game of the season. Mike Wilkerson ran a 60-yard touchdown, but it was called back. This week they play the Highland Bulldogs at McCaulley.

McCaulley cheerleaders and pep squad will put on a skit for the exes and others who want to attend the pep rally Friday at 3:00.

The high school football boys have been working out very hard this week. They say that they are looking forward to the homecoming game against the Trent Gorillas, and they predict a big victory for McCaulley.

The McCaulley FHA is selling birthday cakes. If you wish to buy a birthday cake for yourself or someone else, contact one of the FHA members or call the school and ask for Mrs. Barbara Martin. The cakes will be decorated according to your wants.

McCaulley High School is looking better. McCaulley High is repairing and painting the gymnasium. This summer the classrooms were painted inside and outside. Also, the trimming on the gym has been painted and work is being done on the inside. The new maintenance worker, Joe Benavides, has done a tremendous amount of work this year.

This week is the starting week of the McCaulley FFA-FHA fruit sale. The goal is set for 200 boxes. Fresh oranges and grapefruit can be ordered from any member of the two clubs.

The Journalism Class is publishing a school newspaper every two weeks. The editor is Cherie McKinney. Helping her is Kathy Wilkerson as assistant editor. Other officers are: typist, Fonda Jeffrey; sports editor, JoNell Coleman; organization editor, Janet Cassady; class editor, Wilma Williams; assistant class editor, Kathy Pippin; artist, Dennisa Decker; and sponsor, Mrs. Geneva Carter.

What's in it for you, Mrs. Edith Fowler?
"Keeping in touch." "I read the Abilene Reporter-News to find out about my friends and neighbors."
"When you get past a certain age, you don't get together with your friends or go to meetings as often as you once did.
"So I rely on the paper to tell me who's been sick, and who has had a death in the family, and who's been in the news lately.
"I'm an early riser, and for years I've been in the habit of having my morning coffee and reading the Reporter-News. And it's there all day long, whenever I need it.
"For people my age, the newspaper is like a good friend and neighbor."
